At this retreat, we will use the Scriptures and other means to reflect on our capacity to be grateful in times of both blessing and adversity.

WHEN is the retreat?

January 18-20, 2019

Jan. 18 Check-in 3:30-4:30 pm

It takes approximately 3 hours from Immaculate Conception to reach the retreat center.

Jan. 20 Retreat ends at 1 pm

WHERE is the retreat?

The NC Baptist Assembly is located at Fort Caswell, Oak Island in Brunswick County. The retreat center is on a peninsula overlooking the point where the Cape Fear River meets the Atlantic Ocean, with spectacular views and miles of white beach.

100 Caswell Beach Road
Oak Island, NC 28465
(910) 278-9501

WHAT can I expect?

- Scripture sessions in which we will break open the Word to discover God's timeless truths
- Opportunities to express your spirituality through prayer, music, crafting and other activities
- A chance to relax and renew in beautiful surroundings, through beach walks, yoga, massage or simply time alone
- The company of a wonderful, faith-filled community of women

WHAT does it cost?

$160 ($150 if paid by December 21)

$75 single room supplement

Cost includes two nights' shared lodging, retreat sessions and materials, journal, and all meals (prepared by your own parish chefs!) Partial financial assistance may be available to parishioners, based on need (non-parishioners are not eligible for financial assistance). Contact Maryann Crea in the parish office by December 21 to inquire. (919) 682-3449 x270

Are you interested in making a financial donation to help provide financial assistance? Such a tax-deductible donation is most welcome—please contact Maryann. (919) 682-3449 x270

HOW do I get there?

Transportation is on your own. Due to limited parking availability at the retreat center, we encourage you to carpool, and encourage all passengers to reimburse the carpool driver (suggested amount $20). We also hope you'll consider being a carpool driver. We will help connect people who would like to carpool; see back of the registration form to select your transportation option. If you need a ride, please be sure to sign up early.

ABOUT our facilitator:

Jude Siciliano, OP, belongs to the Dominican Order of Preachers and is the prior of St. Albert the Great Priory in Irving, Texas. He preaches and directs retreats across the country. Jude has lived in community with both women and men, has listened particularly to the struggles of women and is committed to bringing to light the experiences of women in the Church. We are truly blessed to have Fr. Jude with us once again on this retreat.
