Meals for the Hungry: January 20

Please drop off food at Immaculate Conception Kitchen between 4:15 and 5:00 PM.

Please consider helping in this month's Meals for the Hungry. We ask that food donations be delivered in disposable (i.e., aluminum) pans and that each donation be enough to feed 15 people. Donations can be dropped off at the Immaculata kitchen (attached to the school). Food will be kept warm and cold as necessary until transport to Urban Ministries on Liberty Street, where meals will be served in person.

LOVE FUND

The Love Fund comes from our community. A single mother of two. She lost her job. She is beginning a new job but she has used all her savings to pay her past bills and needs help with her current rent and utility bills. She does not want to get behind. She would appreciate any financial help provided.

Thank you "RESPETO"

Thank you to the RESPETO group for the Epiphany activities last Sunday; the play was wonderful. The Rosca and hot chocolate were appreciated by the kids.

Thank you so much for your generosity this Christmas! We especially want to thank you for your donations to the second collection on Christmas which was for the Love Fund. Your donations totaled $9,826. As you know the Love Fund allows us to help those in need. Your generosity will allow us to help many people!
