Instructions for attending Mass and other events at Immaculate Conception

Stay at home.
Do not come if you have any kind of illness or symptoms, or if you – or someone you’ve been in close contact with – have tested positive for COVID in the last 14 days and/or are under quarantine.

This includes fever, cough, GI symptoms, lost of taste or smell, general body aches, etc.

Wash your hands.
Please wash your hands prior to entering and use hand sanitizer often.

Use a Face Covering.
Face coverings (covering both mouth and nose) are required at all times, everywhere on campus.

Including children two and up.

Follow Signs & Instructions.
Please follow posted signage as well as staff and usher instructions

Ushers will instruct you on where to sit, and when to leave.

Masses.
All Masses are open to the public, on a first-come/first served basis.
No reservations needed.

Children two and up are welcome in the Sanctuary (must wear a mask at all times)
